

Your  Candidate:
Dave Hill

"I am a socialist and a trade unionist in the teacher's union UCU. I was Labour - twice I stood for Parliament for Labour, and led the Labour Councillors in East Sussex - but I'm not New Labour. I left the party in 2005 because it doesn't represent my class, the working class, any more! I oppose the Iraq and Afghan wars, I oppose making working people pay for the economic crisis. I want better public services, not cuts! And, if elected, I will take only the average Brighton worker's wage!"

Public meeting

6pm, Wednesday 5 May

Phoenix Community Centre,

Phoenix Place (near St Peter's Church), Brighton BN2 9ND

Why should we pay for their crisis?

Fed up with cuts, MPs' expenses, bankers' bonuses, war, privatisation, Labour acting like the Tories putting profits before jobs and the environment? So are we...

...that's why we've united to build a new party to represent us in the General Election

the Trade Unionist and Socialist Coalition for the millions, not the millionaires!
